The Young Actors Company combines weekly Sunday morning workshops in stage, screen and theatre making, and monthly masterclasses to provide opportunities to develop acting skills, increase confidence and meet new friends; open to anyone aged 14-18, regardless of background or experience.

- Industry-relevant stage and screen training from a leading, accredited UK Drama School
- Professionally-filmed audition monologue & headshot
- Classes in Acting for Camera, Self-tape & Audition Technique, Devised Performance Projects, alongside industry-led Casting Director masterclasses and much more

An accessible and creative theatre training programme, founded on our renowned training principles of Act. Make. Move. Collaborate. gearing actors towards professional progression through the arts, in an enriching and playful environment.

Spaces are limited, to ensure a personal approach and to best support individual progression.
