Professor Robbie Gilligan is Head of the School of Social Work and Social Policy at Trinity College Dublin.

He has served as a youth worker, social worker, foster carer and board member of various social service organisations. He is also Associate Director (and co-founder) of the Children's Research Centre and co-ordinator (and founder) of the MSc in Child Protection and Welfare at Trinity College. Professionally, his policy and practice focus is in the field of child and family welfare. He has a particular interest in the application of resilience and strength based perspectives in interventions with children and families experiencing adversity.

All participants will receive a copy of Professor Robbie Gilligan's book entitled Promoting Resilience — Supporting children and young people who are in care, adopted or in need, the second edition of which has recently been published.
